

Want to Teach CPR?
We're Looking for Instructors to Teach
BLS, ACLS, or/and PALS.
(and we will train YOU!)

Earn Extra Money ($$$) while educating others in a fun, relaxed classroom. Teaching is truly a rewarding experience. Here's your chance!

CPR Louisville has current openings for an American Heart Association Instructor to teach 5-8 classes/month of BLS, ACLS (and potentially PALS).

Qualifications: EMS or critical care nursing, Paramedic, RN, or equivalent.

Instructor Certification Requirements: If you do not have your BLS, ACLS and PALS Instructor Certifications we can provide that training.

Flexible Schedule: You will be expected to teach a minimum of 5 days per month. This will include some mornings, some evenings, and some weekends. We will work with your schedule in advance when determining which days you will be teaching. We have flexibility and a decade of experience doing this with other full-time medics/nurses, etc.. *NOTE: We can easily work around a full-time paramedic, nursing, etc. schedule.
